

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

I am C.Balamurugan, from south India in Tamilnadu. I am writing to you in the eagerness of acceptance to the Master's program at your Leicester University. I am a career- oriented guy having high aims and great ambition in my life. Always I set targets for reaching higher positions in my career. I am very thankful to God to have blessed parents who always teach me the good values in life and principles and encourage me to achieve my career goals.

I completed my Diploma in Arulmurugan Polytechnic College in karur , in April 2018. I choose Mechanical Engineering in my Under Graduation. I did my B.E Mechanical Engineering from April 2017- 2021 in M.Kumarasamy College of Engineering, Karur and I successfully completed with 7.269 CGPA. My home town is karur .My place have surrounded by bus body building company and Textile company. so I want to higher my knowledge in international management .

UK has the most reputed global institutions which makes it one of the best studies abroad destinations. Most of the UK Universities are recognized worldwide for having the ability to push the students to the extreme to achieve their goal. Reputed UK universities are considered to produce the most employable graduates globally. Countries like the UK are considered as friendly for foreigners. Moreover, it is also called the land of opportunities. Because of their vast economy, students get plenty of opportunities after completing their studies.

As a bachelor degree holder, I can reach certain limits that were already accomplished by many graduates like me. I realize that a Master's degree in my specialization is an essential component at this stage to broaden my knowledge and uplift my career with plenty of opportunities in this competitive world.

Effective management of all the activities in a construction site plays a crucial role in completion of a construction project without any delay. Many projects particularly in construction industry across the world have been left uncompleted due to poor management skills and coordination between the stakeholders. To give an effective solution to this many graduates have to be encouraged to take up research-oriented study on the relevant fields like management etc. Keeping this in view, I have decided to pursue my Master's degree in international management.

The University of Leicester attracts a large number of international students every year due to its quality education and research-oriented teaching which has a valuable impact on the student's career and development. With the best academic performance and the university is placed at the best rated higher studies destination across the globe.

I believe that doing Masters in your university will definitely widen horizons of my knowledge and help me attain a milestone in my career. I am eagerly anticipating for an admission from your prestigious university for my future endeavors. I am very keen on an association with your school of Excellence. My essay is simple and honest. I hope upon reading this essay you'll have a picture of who am I. Thank you for your time and your consideration.

Thank you for your consideration

Regards,

Balamurugan.C